Subject: tracksuit

Hi, my mum (GT) was a hash house harrier runner and she has a hash tracksuit in about a size 14-16 that she no longer uses and is in very good condition and she would like to be able to give it to anyone who might have a use for it, rather than giving it to charity. Is there anywhere I could drop this off in The Gap?

Thanks

Melaka is known for it's fantastic food. An adventure awaits you dining amongst the diverse cultures. Local Portuguese, BabaNyonya, Chicken Rice, Ikan Bakar , Satay Chelop, Chinese Satay and other cuisines defines Melaka food at it' very best. Oh yes, there are beers too; Carlsberg, Anchor, Heniken, Tiger, and Guinness are at the forefront of the local scene and at bargain prices too.

Melaka offers you an ideal hashing destination, with which will reminisce the type of runs that Gispert did way back in 1937 with the Springgit Harriers. Most of all you need to experience the warmth of the people especially the hashers from the 8 chapters in Melaka.

Hares : GADAFFI, BARB and IMPOTENT

Venue: Kalinga Park Woolloowin

Scribe: LEPRECHAUN

Short term memory loss meant that, while I remembered to bring pen and paper with me from home, I totally forgot to record anything on the run and only recalled that I should be scribing as the circle started - hence some lack of detail. I do remember that we arrived to find GADAFFI bemoaning the fact that IMPOTENT had gone AWOL (we found out later that he had gone off to find some ice again, this time to keep the cooked sausages nice and warm) and that the trail was all his own work. In the circumstances he did well to set two clearly marked trails for walkers and runners, but the runners were understandably peeved to find only one check-back, no checks, no 360s, no false trails, no songs and no drink stop that anyone managed to find. It's a tough ask for a virgin hare to set a good hash trail on their own, but the walkers were well catered for with a meandering trail through territory which we haven't visited for some time, along Kedron Brook and through the streets of Toombul and Nundah.

We arrived back at the On On to find no hares and no TINNY and HARDCOCK, the latter two having been swallowed up by some black hole into which their satnav had directed them (get a UBD Tinny) and the former forlornly waiting at some drink stop which both packs had managed to miss, even though we were on trail all the way. The great mobile phone soon provided explanations and the hares arrived in due course laden down with goodies for nosh.

The pre-circle chatter centred on the proposal to lift numbers (and possibly average intelligence levels too) on the next run, by everybody bringing a dog along. Next week's hares thought this an excellent idea and wondered why we should stop at dogs - why not any animal, however they did balk at elephants and rhinos (possibly because they are likely to be too intelligent). So next week's run is a 'bring an animal' run, but elephants and rhinos are banned. (CG please enter on the run list).

The circle came in time to limit this madness and DOWN DOWNS went to:

HARES BARB, GADAFFI and IMPOTENT

SPADGER for crapping at Maccas and running 10 times faster unloaded

LOOSELIPS for whingeing about the run

BATMAN and WHEELBARROW for getting lost on the run and coming in with big smiles. (BATMAN claims he was running with WHEELCHAIR not WHEELBARROW)

CALL GIRL for overachieving with the trash and for texting on the run

BUSHY for pissing off to Melbourne

PRICK OF THE WEEK LOOSELIPS for whingeing

RAFFLES won by BARB - bottle of Scotch

VB - 6 pack

The evening ended with ONE STICK declaring that she had lost her car keys, requiring the remnants of the pack to scour the entire park in search of them. After 15 minutes of fruitless endeavour, they were found by BONDAGE in her hash bag where ONE STICK had put them, believing the bag to be hers.

Prick of the week next week ONE STICK!

ON-ON. LEPRECHAUN

Paddy and Murphy were talking one afternoon when Paddy tells Murphy,

"Ya know, I reckon I'm 'bout ready for a vacation. Only this year I'm gonna do it a little different. The last few years, I took your advice about where to go. Three years ago you said to go to Hawaii ... I went to Hawaii and Molly got pregnant.

Then two years ago, you told me to go to the Bahamas and Molly got pregnant again.

Last year you suggested Tahiti and darn me, if Molly didn't get pregnant again."

Murphy asks Paddy, "So, what you gonna do this year that's different?"

Paddy says, "This year I'm taking Molly with me."

Two women were having lunch together, and discussing the merits of cosmetic surgery.

The first woman said, "I need to be honest with you, I'm getting a boob job."

The second woman responded, "Oh, that's nothing. I'm thinking of having my asshole bleached!"

"Whoa," replied the first woman. "I just can't picture your hubby as a blonde!"

Perks of living after 50!

Someone had to remind me, so I'm reminding you too. Don't laugh.....it is all true...

Perks of reaching 50 or being over 60 and heading towards 70 or even worse, over 70

01. Kidnappers are not very interested in you.
- 02.. In a hostage situation you are likely to be released first.
03. No one expects you to run--anywhere.
04. People call at 9 pm and ask,"did I wake you?"
05. People no longer view you as a hypochondriac.
06. There is nothing left to learn the hard way.
07. Things you buy now won't wear out.
08. You can eat supper at 4 pm.
09. You can live without sex but not your glasses.
10. You get into heated arguments about pension plans.
11. You no longer think of speed limits as a challenge.
12. You quit trying to hold your stomach in no matter who walks into the room.
13. You sing along with elevator music.
14. Your eyes won't get much worse.
- 15.. Your investment in health insurance is finally beginning to pay off.
16. Your joints are more accurate meteorologists than the national weather service.
17. Your secrets are safe with your friends because they can't remember them either.
18. Your supply of brain cells is finally down to manageable size.
19. You can't remember who sent you this list.
- 20.And you notice these are all in Big Print for your convenience.

Forward this to every one you can remember right now!

Most importantly, never, ever, under any circumstances, take a sleeping pill and a laxative, at the same time!
